Awasi Atacama

Awasi Atacama is nestled in the town of San Pedro de Atacama, a tranquil oasis in the heart of the desert.

HOW TO GET THERE

From Santiago, Chile: LATAM Airlines and SKY Airline operate frequent daily flights to El Loa Airport (CJC), with departures every two hours. Your Awasi guide will meet you at the airport and transfer you to the lodge in a private INEOS Grenadier, your first experience of the Grenadier's commanding presence in the Atacama Desert. This trip takes approximately 90 minutes.

Other access routes to San Pedro de Atacama: Due to the proximity of San Pedro de Atacama to the Argentinian and Bolivian borders, it is possible to travel by land between these countries.

The main border crossings are: Hito Cajón, Jama, Sico and Socompa.

DAY 1

Arrival in Awasi Atacama

Arrive at El Loa Airport (CJC), where your Awasi guide will be waiting to greet you.

Travel to the lodge aboard the INEOS Grenadier, built for exactly this terrain and take in the first views of the desert's vast scenery.

Upon arrival, check in to your room and meet with your private guide for a personalised briefing to plan the days ahead.

Take a short walk into San Pedro de Atacama, the historic town that has served as a cultural crossroads for centuries. Its adobe architecture, lively plaza and local market, and the 17th century Church of San Pedro de Atacama reflect the blend of indigenous traditions and colonial heritage that define the region.

In the evening, enjoy dinner at the Main Lodge, a relaxed introduction to the flavours of northern Chile.

DAY 2

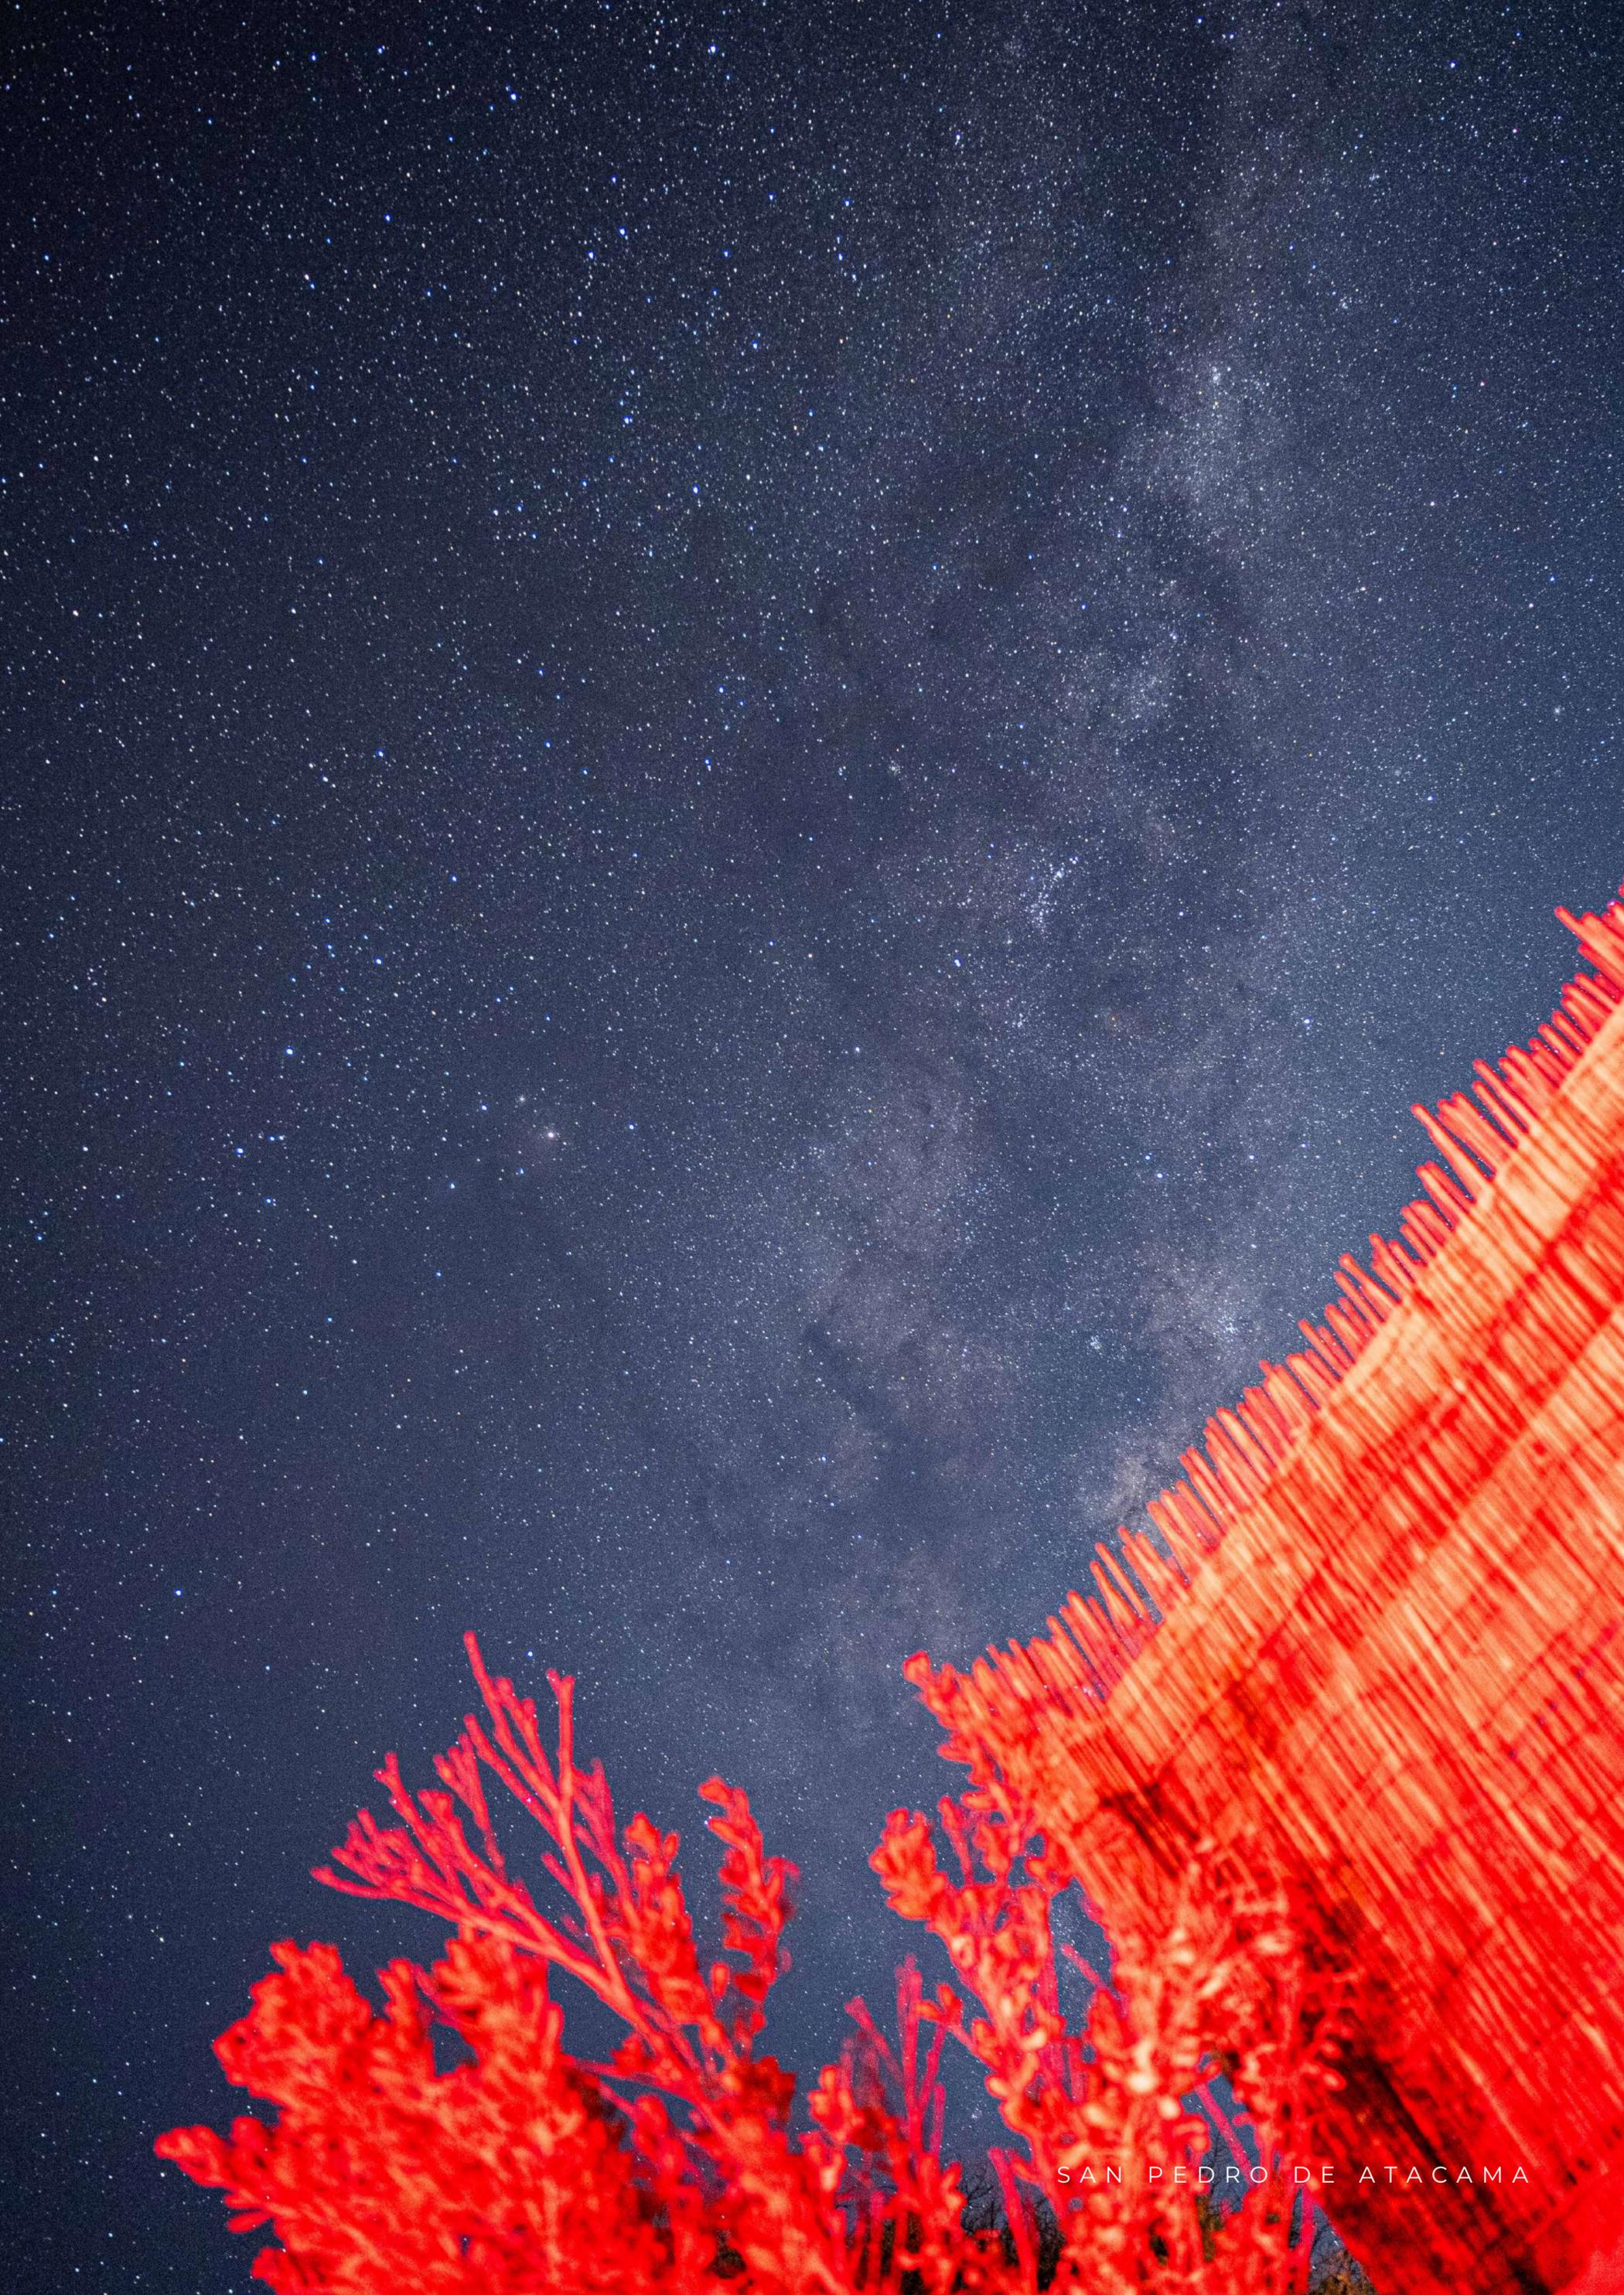

From Salt Valleys to the Stars

Depart in the INEOS Grenadier, engineered to access terrain that ordinary vehicles cannot, to explore Vallecito, nestled within the Cordillera de la Sal.

Far from the main visitor routes, hike through salt formations, eroded ridges, and open desert plains that reveal the powerful geological forces that have shaped the Atacama Desert over millions of years.

Return to the lodge for lunch and choose one of two afternoon activities: a bike ride through desert trails framed by ochre cliffs and the ancient valleys of Catarpe, or a horseback journey across Valle de Marte, a landscape of red earth, wind carved ridges and panoramic views.

After dinner at the Main Lodge, board the INEOS Grenadier once more for an exclusive stargazing exploration. As darkness settles over the landscape, travel deep into the desert with an Awasi guide specialised in astronomy to discover constellations, planets and distant galaxies under one of the clearest night skies on Earth.

DAY 3

Geysers & Chilean Wines

The INEOS Grenadier climbs 4,320 metres above sea level to reach El Tatio Geysers, one of the world's highest geothermal fields. Walk through the steaming landscape with your private guide, observing bubbling pools, fumaroles, and active geysers while learning about the volcanic forces that shape the Atacama Desert.

After exploring the geothermal field, pause at a quiet scenic spot for a picnic lunch surrounded by the vast high-altitude desert and sweeping Andean views, far from crowds.

Return to the lodge for a private wine tasting, enjoying a curated selection of Chilean wines paired with local cuisine.

DAY 4

Departure

After a final breakfast at Awasi Atacama, check out and prepare for your journey home. Your guide will accompany you on a private transfer in the INEOS Grenadier back to El Loa Airport (CJC), ensuring a smooth departure and a final farewell to the desert.
